

NOTICE: Delays Expected in New Jersey Due to Hurricane Ida

Dear Business Partner,

Due to flooding of roadways, homes and businesses in New Jersey caused by Hurricane Ida, Governor Murphy has declared a State of Emergency. Access roads to and from the port terminals have been closed.

- Maher Terminals are closed today.
- The PNCT Terminal has delayed opening.
- APM Terminals Elizabeth opened for normal gate hours today, but delays are expected.
- CSX is assessing terminal conditions. No departures from New Jersey yesterday evening.

This issue will impact our recovery and return of containers through the remainder of the week. Please contact your STG customer service representative with any questions.
